EOTMISM

- Emergent
 - Fit the technology to the learner
 - Fit the technology to the curriculum already in place

EOTMISM

- On-Site
 - Deliver in-service on-site using the same equipment the learners use on a daily basis.

EOTMISM

- Technology
 - Not just computer applications
 - Still digital cameras
 - Digital video cameras
 - Interactive video conferencing

EOTMISM

- Mentorship
 - Establish rapport and comfort levels for all involved
 - Work with teachers and their students
 - Visit often enough to help the teacher take over the instruction
 - The teacher establishes the curriculum connections and as soon as possible takes charge of the whole process

Three balloons in green, blue, and purple are positioned on the left side of the slide. Each balloon has a string and several small yellow triangular flags attached to it. The balloons are arranged vertically, with the green one at the top, the blue one in the middle, and the purple one at the bottom.

EOTMISM

- In-service

- Be willing to adapt to all circumstances when providing in-service

- Lunch and Learn
 - After school Specials
 - Dinner meetings
 - On-site, at work, with kids in-service.
